Galveston, were fully appreciated, and Misses Ramage and Camm also filled parts in the programme of "midget danc-ing and song."

DRIVING PARTY.

The Misses Bangs, of Louisville, gave a driving party to Falling Springs on

A DELIGHTFUL SUPPER.

GERMAN AT WYTHEVILLE.

A Beautiful Affair-Many Fancy

(Correspondence of the Dispatch.) WYTHEVILLE, VA., August 25 .- Another beautiful german was given at the Church-Street Opera-House by the young men of the town last night, in which some thirty or forty couples took part. Most of the costumes of the ladies were fancy. The dancing began at an early hour and continued, with a few brief intermissions, until quite late in the night.

Miss Emma Hornsby, of Knoxville, as a Spanish girl, with Dr. W. H. Ribble, Jr. Miss Minnie Spiller, as a stick of candy, with David Biair.

Miss Sue Peyton Kent, as Queen Elizabeth, with Normant Powell.

Miss Thompson, of Kentucky, as Queen of Sheba, with Ro. Crockell, Jr.

Miss Kelly, of Mobile, as a German peasant, with John Randolph Bolling.

Miss Annie Billups, of Norfolk, as a pink, with Mr. Peters, of Charlottesville.

Miss McKenney, of Richmond, as a gold-bug, with Arthur Ribble.

Miss McKenney, of Richmond, as a katydid, with Mr. Guy, of Richmond.

Miss Blair, as a little maid in blue, with Roy Sexton.

Miss Hodgson, of Norfolk, as forgetwith Roy Sexton.

Miss Annie Guy, of Richmond, Princess of Ireane, with Harry Princess of Ireane, with Harry Lee Crockett, of Chicago.

Miss Stella Chretiess, of New Orleans, as a Greek gir, with Kent Spiller.

Miss Chapman, of Knoxville, in full evening dress, with Cecil Billups, of Nor-folk.

Miss Jarvis, of Petersburg, as a cigarette girl, with Sydney Moore.

Miss Fannie Guy, of Richmond, as Folly, with Ro. Sayers, Jr.
Miss Kittle Heath, of Richmond, as a

Miss Kittle Heath, of Richmond, as a Violet, with Boyd Spiller.

Miss Chretiess, of New Orleans, as a Greek girl, with Gariand Sexton.

Miss Hodgson, of Norfolk, as for-get-me-not, with Mr. Chapman, of Norfolk.

Miss Ella Ewald, as gold-bug, with Mr. William Jameison, of Martinsville, Va. Miss Bolling, in a costume of pink, with Wilmer Bolling.

A Madrigal.

(From Madame.)

The dreary days of winter come,
The fields are bare, the woods are dumb,
And chilled with drenching rain;
But, dearest, in your face I see
The memy, merry months again.

For April left within your eyes.
The pectless azure of his skies;
And snowy blooms of May
Are on your brow; and June impressed.
The kisses of his roslest day

On either cheek. As for your hair, September stored his treasure there Of glittering gold, that I Might gaze thereon and valiantly The winter frosts and chilis defy.

with Roy Sexton.

Costumes.

SEASON.

An Unusually Protty German-The Great Event for the Little Ones-Their Fancy Ball-Some of the Costumes.

(Correspondence of the Dispatch.) ALLEGHANY SPRINGS, VA., August B.-For the outside world the interest m these places of resort ceases with the thronicle of the gayeties of youth, for even the blood of the old is stirred and their pulsation quickened by reading of palls, moonlight walks and drives, and all these delightful follies which have seen since the world began, and will be antil it ends. Such reading revives ten- daughters. her memories of days that have long

This season has been one of unusual Lexington Locals-Champion Snake enjoyment because of its lack of inharnious elements. Agreeable people have been much in evidence, grumblers have been few, and mischlef-makers conspicuous for their absence.

to end, for soon the year's work must begin again, and the machinery which begin again, and the machinery which has slackened up during the heat of from a visit to Warrenton.

Mr. L. D. Gilmore and Mr. W. C. Gilmore charming company will linger on here during September, and already they will be described by the september of the septem are making plans for the pleasures of a smaller circle, which affords greater so-mability, and for all sorts of delightful excursions.

Mrs. Newman Bold and S. H. have gone to Temple, S. have gone to Temple, S. will go into business.

Mrs. Newman Bold and S. H. have gone to Temple, S. have gone to Temple, S. will go into business.

Mrs. Newman Bold and S. H. have gone to Temple, S. will go into business.

Mrs. Newman Bold and S. H. have gone to Temple, S. will go into business.

Mrs. Newman Bold and S. H. have gone to Temple, S. will go into business.

Mrs. Newman Bold and S. H. have gone to Temple, S. will go into business.

Southern people really see more of the beauties of these Virginia mountains than do our own, for they come when the foliage is in its June freshness, and stay until it has put on the glories of

But this last letter must tell of other

But this last letter must tell of other things than nature, or be pronounced the work of a prosy old writer.

Saturday morning witnessed a very defightful german, under the management of Messrs. John Buford and P. T. Spenser. The weather was all that could be lesired for coolness, the music of the best, and the young people in their brightest mood, and so it passed off most successfully.

very prilliant.

VERY BRILLIANT.

Tuesday's german was made unusually brilliant by the presence of such a number of pretty girls. There were twenty-live couples, led by Measrs, Ed. and Will Dolhoun. Refreshments were served during the breaks. The chaperons were Mesdames Bradley, Reid, Holt, Wells, and Woodward. Those dancing were Mesdames McCerren, Styll, and Bruce; Misses Owen, Carmichael, Woodward, Wells, Kylo Reid, Margaret Roid, L. Reid, Hilliard, Chamberlain, Barnwell, Robertson, Hudson, Gregory, Brockett, Ellis, Stiles, Dreyfuss, Brown, and V. Vaughn; Messrs, Ed. and Will Colhoun, Mayer, Dunklee, Semple, N. Newton, Vaughn; Messrs. Ed. and Will Coldon, Mayer, Dunklee, Semple, N. Newton, Bone, McCerren, Ellis, Cardoza, Ander-ron, Eskridge, Ellett, Palfrey, Parker Eskridge, Booth, Miller, Wilson, Mau-tret, Johnston, Ellett, Wisdom, Reid, and mesdames Wells of Vicksburg, Wood-ward of Norfolk, and Chaffe of New Or-eans are prominent among the hand-tome and agrecable young married women tere.

THE BELLE.

As this is leap-year, it is not inappropriate to state that the belle of Allerhamy this season has been Dr. Holt, if Surry county, Va.
Mrs. Beatwright, of Danville, is a most of Sootch thistles, and Oscar Barney as Feorge Washington, in the handsome ostume of "ye olden time." Two of the sprettlest were Richmond girls—May Moore, as a Greek girl, and her sister folia as Cherry Rice.

BOY BLUE. william Wells as Boy Blue, waked the choes with his horn. Little Beatrice held there, and in case it is, there will be a large crowd in attendance.

Vierit

to what gives Hood's Sarsaparilla its great popularity, its constantly increasing sales, and enables it to accomplish its wonderful and unequalled cures. The combination, proportion and process used in preparing Hood's Sarsaparilla are unknown to other medicines, and make Hood's Sarsaparilla

Peculiar to Itself

It cures a wide range of diseases because of its power as a blood purifier. It acts directly and positively upon the blood, and the blood reaches every nook and corner of the human system. Thus all the nerves, muscles, bones and tissues come under the beneficent influence of

Hood's Sarsaparilla

One True Blood Purifier. $1 per bottle. Hood's Pills take, easy to operate. 25c.

ROUNDING UP A VERY BRILLIANT

sant girl, as was also Janie Louise Coihoun, as a marcon and yellow pansy.
Arline Lucado was Queen of the Meadows, and Winnie Lucado appeared as a woodland maid. Reed Colhoun made a splendid jockey, and little Harry Stone, as a Kate Greenaway girk was perfect.
The special feature of the evening was the beautiful Mny-pole dance. This was done by the older children, whilst the little ones were grouped closely around the pole, and it was wonderful to see how gracefully the dancers, in a double circle, wound their ribbons in and out.
At 10 o'clock the dining-room doors were thrown open, and the procession rethrown open, and the procession re-formed and marched in. The long tables with their decorations of flowers, fruits, and meions presented a most attractive appearance, and reflected great credit on the good taste of the head walter, Royal Butler, and his assistant. William

There were all sorts of good thingscakes, confectioneries, ices, &c.-for these small guests who were ready to do them ample justice.

Mrs. Lawrence Holt, of Burlington, N. C., is here with her two attractive young

ROCKBRIDGE COUNTY.

Killers-Briefs. (Correspondence of the Dispatch.) LEXINGTON, VA., August 29 .- Judge and Mrs. Beverly R. Welford and Miss Susie Welford, of Richmond, are visiting But, like all the pleasures of life, it has Mrs. Henry Alexander White.

Colonel Robert A. Marr, of the Virginia Military Institute, has returned county.

Mr. W. M. McElwee, cashier of the Bank of Rockbridge, is spending a vacation at the Rockbridge Baths.

Miss Hallie Morrison, formerly of this county, but now of St. Louis, is the guest of Professor and Mrs. Addison Hogue, of the Washington and Lee University.

Professor J. Hendron Gorrell, of Wake Forest College, N. C., who has been spending the summer in Germany, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B.

H. Gorrell. Mr. H. M. Leech and family, and Mr. Charles Funkhouser and wife, of Ealth-more, are visiting Mrs. E. R. Funkhouser Both of these gentlemen are connected with the Baltimore Morning Herald. The Rev. F. J. Brooke has declined the call tendered him by the Falling Spring congregation.

Mr. H. E. Wilcox, of Temple, Tex.,

who has been visiting friends here, has returned to his home.

Mr. Alfred F. Bolling, of Louisville, Ky., was here this week visiting familiar scenes. He is an alumnus of the Virginia Military Institute. Mr. J. P. McClure has been re-elected principal of the Buena Vista public school, and Mr. J. L. Adair first assistant.

The Rev. John A. Preston, D. D., of Charlotte, N. C., has been seriously ill with typhoid-fever for two weeks at the residence of Professor Hogue. At present his condition is encouraging. His brother, Dr. George J. Preston, of Baltimore, is with him.

Miss Floy Thompson, of Timber Ridge, who has been visiting at Hampton, is quite ill at her home.

quite ill at her home.

Last Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Cynthia
B. T. Coleman, vice-president of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, formed a branch of the society at "The Pines," the home of the late General W. N. Pendleton, chief of artillery of the Army of Northein Virginia. The following members were enrolled: Miss Rose Pendleton. Miss Mary Pendleton Mrs. S. P. Lee, Mrs. Carring-

Wednesday night saw the consummation of the wishes of the little folks, and a prettier ball could not have been had inywhere. It was under the efficient management of Mrs. Bradley, of New York, and that was sufficient to make it in assured success. No pains were pared, and no more beautiful sight bould have been seen than this entertainment presented, made up as it was of lappy childlash faces, graceful dancers, and bright decorations. When the long procession marched in and went through nich intricate evolutions, keeping time to one of Sousa's inspiring strains, the appliance was loud and long.

It was a flower-ball, and most of the fider girls represented pansies, in their ifferent colors, each wearing a mask, spon which this flower had been painted. The boys were sunflowers, in costumes ind masks, and were excellent representations of this flower, Amongst these naskers were little Misses Wisdom, Cox, Woodward, Lucado, Harding, Morgan, kaunders, Chaffe, Hoit, and Randolphi, and Masters Mortimer and Irby Wisdom, Brockett, Charles and Kenyon Wells, Hamilton and John Chaffe, Reed, and Penick.

There were some wonderfully pretty Penick.

There were some wonderfully pretty tharacters. Special mention should be nade of little Eliza Wisdom, who was to lovely as a butterdy, and Rob. and Charley Colhoun, as Highland laddies, in perfect costumes of the plaid worn by the Colhoun Cian, and carrying bunches of Sootch thistles, and Oscar Barney as beorge Washington, in the handsome affair. This place is well known ighout the county, and there is no

"Nancy's Gone to Boston Town."

Nancy's gone to Boston town, Ho, lads, for Nancy! Ho, lads, for Nancy!
Boston lads of Boston town,
'Rah! 'Rah! for Nancy;
'Tis the reason, 'tis the why,
Your stars go twinkling all the night,
Nancy lights them with her eye;
It's a flash 'twixt night and light;
Hear the clinkle of her shoon,
'That's a song (her eyes are brown);
listen lads, and catch the time. listen lads and catch the tune, Nancy's gone to Boston town.

Ring your bells in Boston town, Ho, lads, for Nancy; Boston lads of Boston town, Hip! Hip! for Nancy; 'Tis the why and reason, too, Your birds wake up and sing for fun. Nancy smiles, they think it's dew, Dropping, dropping in the sun. Hear the clinkle of her shoon. Hear the swish of her new gown, That's a song, just eatch the tune. Nancy's gone to Bosten town.

Toss your caps in Boston town, Toes your caps in Boston town, Ho, lads, for Nancy
Boston lads of Boston town,
A rat'ling cup for Nancy;
'Tis the reason, 'tis the why,
No star is seen nor bird at South,
To woo the flashes of her cye
And win the smiles about her mouth;
Miss the clinkle of her shoon, Miss the swish of her new gown;
That's a song, we miss the tune,
Nancy's come from Boston town.
WILLIAM PAGE CARTER. ROCKBRIDGE ALUM

THE PLEASURE OF BEING THO-ROUGHLY LAZY.

Pictures from the Past-A Beautiful Scene-A Morning German-Progreasive Euchre-A House-Warming-Some Late Arrivals.

(Correspondence of the Dispatch.) ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS, VA. August 26.-Why do people come to the springs? is a question that puzzled me cometimes. While many come for health, I think the great majority come (to use the language of the immortal Huckleberry Finn) just to "lazy around," and there is no place like this for the man who simply wishes to rest without the trouble of dressing and dressing and dressing, which is such a nuisance at most fashionable resorts. The guests just lounge around under the shade trees and play eards and talk politics, and some elect McKinley every day, and the others do the same good work for Bryan. The remaining interesting event to come yet is the medical convention, which convenes September 8th, and many people will remain to be present on that

Now, the young people who imagin Now, the young people who imagine they are resting here are off their base a little. Card parties, bowling parties, riding parties, tennis, dancing, etc., keep them busily engaged, and then every week there is a german.

The event of the season was the leap-year bal poudre, given by the young ladies on Thursday evening. Being managed by Miss Leta Supell, of Norfolk;

Miss Estelle Courtney, of Richmond, and Miss Summerell, of North mond, and Miss Summeren. Carolina, this assured its success. The ball-room was beautifully decorated, and at 10 o'clock the eyes of the onlookers assembled turned towards the door to greet the girls and men who were personating their grandparents in their quaint Colonial costumes, and powdered hair.

A BEAUTIFUL SCENE.

Never before has the Alum witnessed a more imposing or beautiful scene than when those thirty-five couples marched around the room, led by Miss Summerell, who looked lovely in a yellow satin gown, with Mr. William Vaughan, of Lexington, one of the Alum's favorite german leaders, Among those who were the most becomingly and artistically dressed were the Misses Supell, of Norfolk; Miss Mills, of Texas; Miss Urquhart, of Norfolk; Miss White, of Norfolk; Miss Branch, of Savannah; Miss Courtney, of Richmend; Misses Jameson, of Indianapolis; Miss Winter, of Montgomery; Mesdames Randolph, Stickney, Head, Maury, and Fox. and Messrs, Baird, Owen, Supell, White, Johnson, Gentry, Swift, Paxton, Hanger, Stokes, Thomas, Tillery, Cohen, Callender, Branch, Fog. Sexton, and Dr. Jones. A most claborate supper was served at midnight, and dancing continued until after 2 o'clock in A BEAUTIFUL SCENE. Sexton, and Dr. Jones. A most emborate supper was served at midnight, and dancing continued until after 2 o'clock in the morning. The chaperons were: Mrs. Lester, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Milhado, Mrs. Johnston, Mrs. Jameson, Mrs. Supell, Mrs. Branch, Mrs. Winter, and Mrs. Villendring.

Villepeigue. Friday evening Baron von Jungenfield gave a most delightful chafing-dish sup-per to his friends. Among those present were: Mrs. Branch, Mrs. Supell, and Mrs. Penzel, Misses Penzel, Powell, Che-muit, White, Supell, Branch, Winter, and Pickett, and Messrs, Sexton, Taylor, Thomas, Swift, White, Supell, Baled Thomas, Swift, White, Supell, Baird, Gress, Fog, Branch, and Johnson. MORNING GERMAN.

Mrs. Beatwright, of Danville, is a most ittractive young marfed woman visiting leve. Misses Barnwell and Withers, of Mobile, are much admired. Miss Lavinia Robertson, of Columbus, Miss, has as her guest Miss Cornella Hudson, and it would be hard to find wo more attractive young girls.

Thursday morning the pretty bandmand was the scene of another waternelon feast, this time given by Master Decar Norvell Barney, of Mobile, to all its little friends, and also to many older mes, with whom his bright ways and weet manners have made him a favorte.

CHILDREN'S BALL.

Probably the event which each season is looked for with the keenest interest the children's fancy ball, which is given by Captain and Mrs. Colhoun, The builtetin board is always closely watched for the announcement of the date, and the excitement is very high when it appears.

Wednesday night saw the consummation of the wishes of the little folks, and is prettier ball could not have been had anywhere. It was under the efficient

On Monday morning the card devotees arranged for another game of progressive euchre. About a dozen tables were filled. The prizes were won by Miss Kirk, of Montgomery, a pair of silver scissors, and by Mrs. Fox, an exquisite piece of fancy work. Mr. Sommerell won the first gentleman's prize, a silver pen handle, and ex-Governor Ligon, of Alabama, cartied off the second an employers hand. ried off the second, an embroidered hand-ried off the second, an embroidered hand-kerchief case.

Tuesday morning, about 9 o'clock, amildst shouts and peals of laughter, a merry crowd of sixteen started off on a coaching party for Wilson Springs, where they enjoyed a regular old-time Virginta dinner at Mrs. Wilson's house, They re-turned about sundown, after having had dinner at Mrs. Wilson's house. They returned about sundown, after having had a most delightful day. The party consisted of Miss Leta Lupeli, Miss Branch, Miss Alice Lupeli, Miss Ethel Mills, Miss Jane Lupeli, Miss Urquhart, Miss Nora Lupel, and Miss Mills, and Messra, Foy Wilbur, Taylor, Baird, Thomas, Suptell, Branch, and Swift.

Tuesday night, a "house-warming party" was given by Miss Courtney and Miss Summerell, in honor of the opening of their cherming sitting-room, in Cotof their charming sitting-room, in Cot-tage C. A big open fire and soft lights from the many lamps lent their charms to the attractive scene. An informal sup-per was served, and much enjoyed by Mrs. Fox, Mrs. Maury, Mrs. Summerell, Misses Courtney, Pickett, and Summerell, and Mesers. Fox, Maury, Summerell, Vaughan, Johnson, and Dr. and Mrs. R.

Among our new arrivals are Mr. Camp-bell Groner and family. Mrs. Groner has already won for herself many friends by her charming and attractive manners and is considered one of the married beauties here. Mr. and Mrs. Boykin Wright, of Augusta, Ga., and Mrs. Lot-tier, of Richmond, were welcomed by their many friends here a few nights ago. Their cottage porch always presents a scene of merriment, for no greater (avorite has ever been to the Alum than s. Wright. She is admired by all for beauty and charm of manner, while a Lottier always reminds one of a of sunshine. She is always so bright and vivacious.

THE INTERMONT.

A Gala Week-Musical and Other

Entertainments. (Correspondence of the Dispatch, THE INTERMONT, COVINGTON, VA., August 28.—This has been a gala week at the Intermont, It may be said we have had a delightful festival or nusic during the past four or five days. The leading events have been the two evenings by Polk Miller, of banjo and song, and stories of plantation life. On Tuesday and Saturday evenings the nost grotesque and original entertain-

COTTOLENE.

If your food is soggy, greasy, indigestible use Ottolene The N. K. Fairbank Company, St. Louis, Chicago, New Orleans, Baltimore.

Salahunghunggunggunggung

ments of the season were given for the benefit of the Episcopal church, under the able management of the two ladies most famed for their clever and original presentation of amateur subjects—Mrs. Montgomery, of Alabama, and her daughter, Mrs. Smith, from St. Louis, Mo. "The Midgets," a company of little people, were never in better form or voice, and pleased all by their character specialties and sketches. They were assisted by the ladies of the hotel and the Haydin quintette. from Washington, D. C., directed by Mr. Joseph Finckel, who has for two seasons played himself into the hearts of the Intermont guests by his skilful management of the violin.

The musical feature of the entertainments were the songs of Miss Cowling, of Louisville, who has rendered the week of her stay memorable to all who have had the pleasure of listening to her beautifully cultivated and sympathetic voice. Miss Cowling is a pupil of the Conservatory of Cincinnati, and has wonderful musical gifts. Miss Stephenson's dancing was grace itself, and met with deserved encores. The finish and amusing qualities of the recitations by Miss Walker, of Gulveston, were fully appreciated, and Misses Ramage and Camm also filled. have 360 by October 1st. If so, the total enrolment for the session will not be less, I think, than 375. In order to make room in barracks for their accommodation, all of the post-graduate students will leave barracks, and occupy the Hotel Templeton buildings, which have been secured for their use.

Mr. Lingan S. Randolph, of the Mechanical Engineering Department, has not yet returned from the North, where he went to attend the meeting of the Association for the Promotion of Scientine Education, which held its sessions in Buffale. Lieutenant David C. Shanks and family have left here, and will be at the Roa-noke Red Sulphur Springs until the ses-

Instructor Allen Taylor Eskridge, who

Instructor Allen Taylor Esstridge, wan has been absent at his home for some weeks, has returned.

Rev. James M. Holladay and family have been spending the past month in Salem with Mr. Davis Ayres, Mrs. Holladay's father. On Friday, however, they returned to Blacksburg, much to their many friends' delight.

The fine farm, owned by Mr. Dunduss,

The Misses Bangs, of Louisville, gave a driving party to Falling Springs on Wednesday afternoon, in honor of Miss Cowling, which was greatly enjoyed. The bracing air, the exquisite scenery, and the gay spirits of the party made the complimentary drive a great success. Light luncheon was served in the carriages, which was also enjoyed. Those who participated in this pleasure were Misses Mittie Cowling. Emily Baker, Gertrude and Annie Leigh Camm, Adelia and Josephine Bangs, Bertha Willingham, Alios Clarke, and Captain and Mrs. Charles M. Blackford.

On Tuesday morning the Misses Camm entertained at a game of "Old-Fashiqued Hearts," in bonor of their guests, Misses Baker and Cowling. A table, in the centre of the beautiful little "sun parlor" was covered by a large heart in scarlet sage, edged in white phlox, and in its blossems were placed three heart prises—two brooches and one scarf-pin. Heart cards, tied with ribbons, were handed to each guest, and a quotation on love, sentimental or humorous, was written on each, and read aloud, and judged by two married ladies. The first was won by Miss Willingham, the second by Miss Cowling, the gentleman's by Mr. Forsee, and the consolation, a volume of Bret Harte's poems, was drawn by Mr. DeFord, of Baltimore. A light cellation of sandwiches, olives, sardines, and crackers, creme de menthe, and minties was served to the jolly party, whose quotations on the old, but ever new, subject were bright enough to have won individual prizos. Miss Walker gave several charming little recitations on "Sweethearts Old and New," and Miss Cowling closed the entertainment with several beautiful songs. Those present were: Misses Mary Bell Moore, Roba Calloway, M. E. Ramage, Jean Ramage, Lillian Walker, Mittle Cowling, Haddie Stephenson, Bertha Willingham, Adeila and Josephine Bangs, Gertrude and Annie L. Camm, and Messrs, Marshall, DeFord, Parrish, McCabe, Venable, and Forsee, Mrs. Forsee kindly assisted in judging the quotations.

A DeLightful supper after Polk Miller's The fine farm, owned by Mr. Dunduss, of Scotland, just to the east of town, was recently offered for sale, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, of England, who have endeared themselves very much to our peo-ple, have been living there for the past five years, and, in the event of the sale having been consummated, would have moved to Botetourt. I learn with sincere pleasure that since Mr. Dunduss was not spring, at least.

Professor McBryde, of the institute, purchased, however, a portion of the farm, which is considered a valuable tract of land, and was bought very reasonably.

Mrs. Donaldson, of Georgetown, S. C.,

and two nieces, will be the guests of Pro-fessor and Mrs. Davidson for the re-WILL BUILD. A DELIGHTFUL SUPPLE.

A delightful supper after Polk Miller's recital on Thursday evening, was given in honor of the Misses Camm and their guests—a veritable feast of old Virginia ham, home-beaten biscuits, pickles, and almonds, Burgundy, sauterne, and cordial, beautifully served, and with tasteful floral decorations. There were twenty suests.

Mr. John D. Houston has purchased from Mr. Edward Black a site for a house on the hill immediately in front of the college building. He intends to build a handsome residence here, and already the foundation is under way.

Mr. James H. Frascr, of the class of 1894, has been elected Superintendent of

Mr. James H. Fraser, or the class of Schools of Georgetown, S. C., and left this weak for the latter place. Mr. George T. Surface, of the class of 1895, during the past session assistant in Modern Languages, will leave at once for Fort Smith, Ark., to fill the Chair of Modern Languages in a growing institu-tion at that place. guests.

Lynchburg has furnished a most attractive addition to the number of guests during the week past. Captain and Mrs. Charles M. Blackford, and Miss Alice Clark, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Adams, and Messrs. Hans Zuhling and Morris Moore brought much that was agreeable and delightful to the social life of the Interment. A part of this number are driving through the mountains in stylish traps. Mr. Adams is the accomplished organist at St. Paul's church, Lynchburg, and a brilliant performer on the tion at that place.

Mrs. John P. Johnston, of Christiansburg, acompanied by Captain Joinson, left on Wednesday for the Hot Springs of Virginia, where Mrs. Johnson will spend a month. Judge Waller R. Staples, when last traps. Mr. Attains is the accompliant organist at St. Paul's church, Lynchburg, and a brilliant performer on the plane.

From St. Louis late arrivals are: Judge Henry L. Edmunds, formerly of Virginia, and his attractive wife, formerly Miss Breckinridge, and her mother and sister, Mrs. S. M. Breckinridge and Mrs. E. L. T. Breckinridge, and Mr. F. W. Judson and Mr. and Mrs. Judson Late arrivals are: Miss Sara Coons and Miss Bertha McIntyre, Fulton, Mo.; Miss L. Schenck and Miss E. M. Howald, Columbus, O.; Edwin G. Butler, Miss Butler, Louisiana; Mrs. William Brown, and Alex. Erown, Cincinnati, O.; Mrs. W. H. Edwards, Mrs. Webster, D. Smith, heard from, was at Narragansett Pier, and greatly improved in health. He will reach home about September 21.

Dr. J. W. Flynn, of Columbia, S. C., who has been Blacksburg's guest for the heat week with his summer, spent the past week with his family at Mountain Lake. Dr. Flynn is a preacher of rare power, and has delighted large audiences by several fine sermons delivered here in the Presby-terian church. Hon, J. Hoge Tyler seems to have reand Alex. Brown, Cincinnati, D.; Mrs. W. H. Edwards, Mrs. Webster, D. Smith, Miss Catharins F. Smith, West Virginia; Judge William McLaushlin, Lexington, Va.; Dr. J. W. Mailet, University of Virginia; Major Thomas C. Eider, Virginia; A. C. Broxton, Staunton, Va.; Polk Miller, Virginia; Mrs. J. K. Avey, Miss W. L. Jones, Louisville, Ky.; Mac Jones, Virginia; E. Johnson, Longdale, Va.; Mrs. R. C. Scott, and Mr. Madison Scott, Richmond, Va. addressed the voters of the county ones, making a telling and effective speech, and, as always heretofore, he is ready and willing to serve his partry's interest. He was an original free-sliver min, and it must be peculiarly gratifying to him to see what a hold sliver has taken on the neonle.

taken on the people,

SILVER SENTIMENT. The report is current, but with how much foundation I know not, that Mr. J. Hampton Hoge will abandon the race for Congress in the Sixth District, and, Mustard Sard indeed, if this county be taken as an index of the others in the district, it would be a wise thing for him to do, for the silver sentiment is widespread, and spreading more widely every day. The club at this point has something like two hundred members.

Judge Walter M. Pierce, who has been taking his vocation at Crockett's Springs.

Judge Walter M. Pierce, who has been taking his vacation at Crockett's Springs, came up to hold court on Tuesday and Wednesday last.

Encouraged by the success of last year, the promoters of Montgomery's fair will have another exhibition next month. A number of the most prominent farmers in the county are members of the association, and its success is doubtless assured. hour and continued, with a few brief intermissions, until quite late in the night. The dance was well led by Mr. Lee Trinkle, assisted by Miss Minetree, of Washington city, who represented Queen Bess. The other couples were:

Mrs. Norman Walker, of New Orleans, as Little Bo Peep, with Mr. W. S. Moore, of Lynchburg.

Miss Emma Hornsby, of Knoxville, as a Spanish girl, with Dr. W. H. Ribbie, Jr.

sured.

Montgomery Presbytery, one of the a happiness all her own. a happiness all her own. Her's is a joy that cannot be told. It is peculiar to motherhood. The responsibility for the soft little, sweet little, dependant creature—as much a part of herself as her own heart—brings a pleasure that may be equaled in Heaven, but never on earth. The greatest thing that can be done in this world is to bear and rear healthy, heaver children. Many words do not the happy children. Many women do not do it—do not reach the full measure of beautiful, perfect womanhood, because of the neglect of the health of the organs dis-tinctly feminine.

Every woman may be perfectly healthy if she chooses. She need not submit to if she chooses. She need not submit to the humiliating examinations and local treatment of physicians. She need have no trouble and slight expense. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription will cure any disease or disorder peculiar to nen. It is the invention of a regular duted, skilled, expert, successful a list. It has been sold for over 30 years has a greater sale than all similar me cines combined. It regulates every feminine function—makes a woman better able to bear children—better able to take care of her children. It greatly lessens the pain bear children—better able to take care of her children. It greatly lessens the pain and danger of parturition. No honest druggist will offer you a substitute—look out for the one who does.

Unsightly pimples, Constipation causes them. Dr. Pierce's Fleasant Pellets cure constipation. They cure permanently. They are tiny, augurcoated granules. One "Felict" is a gentle laxitie, two a mild cathartic. Sometimes druggists think of their profits, rather than your health, and offer something, said to be "just as grood."

Highest of all in Leavening Power .- Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

al Baking Powder absolutely pure largest in the Virginia Synod, will hold its annual fall meeting in the Roanoko Valley church, four miles distant from Blacksburg. The church is situated in one of the most beautiful and fertile sections of the county, being in the valley of the Roanoko river. Here reside a number of thrifty and independent farmers on lands that have come from father to son, and I bespeak for the presbytery a delightful week in their kind and hospitable homes. The presbytery convenes on September 1st (Tuesday).

A Teying Position.

(Detroit Free Press.) (Detroit Free Fress.)

Old Mrs. M., who was seriously ill, found herself to be in a trying position, which she defined to a friend in these words: "You see, my daughter Harriet is married to one o' these homespath doctors, and my daughter Kate to an allypath. If I call in my homespath, my allypath son-in-law and his wife git mad.

Mrs. Styles: Did you allow that Mr. Close to kiss your lips last night, Masself with the first time?

Orders for printing sent to the Dispatch Company will be given prompt attention, and the style of work and prices will be sure to please you.

Pazticular.

(Yonkers Statesman.)
Mrs. Styles: Did you allow that Mr.
Close to kiss your lips last night, Mahelt
Miss Styles: Do you mean the first

Professor and Mrs. D. O. Names are still visiting relatives in the North, but will return, I learn, about the 1st of September 1. CUT PRICES IN GROCERIES.

Never before in all our experience in the grocery business have we been able to offer goods at such a slash as we are selling this week. We bought them low--we are going to give you the benefit of same.

S. Ullman's Son,

1820-1822 EAST MAIN AND 506 EAST MARSHALL,

Best Granulated Sugar, 4 1-2c. pound. able to secure the price asked for the farm it will not be sold now, and we shall have the tenants with us until next Best Sugar-Cured Shoulders, 6c. Toasted Lunch Milk Crackers, 5c. pound.

A Good Green Tea, 15c. This Tea sells everywhere at 40a. 4 pounds Breakfast Bacon for 25c. Large Cans Condensed Milk, 6c. can. Imported Sardines, with key, 8c.

Large new North Carolina Roe Herrings, 16c. dozen. Tea Dust, 10c. pound. Good as any tea you ever drank. Best Claret Wine (fine summer drink), 50c. gallon. Best Leaf Lard, 6c. pound.

Pure Lard, 5c. pound. Fresh Mocha and Java Coffee, 20c. pound.

Fresh Creamery Butter, 15c, pound. Fresh Dairy Butter, 124c.

2 pounds Fresh Country Butter for 25c. XXX Family Flour, $3.40 barrel, or 22c. sack.

Graham Wafers in 1 pound boxes, 10c. Best Corn Starch, 3c. package. Snowflake Patent Family Flour, $3.70 barrel, or 24c, sack.

10 bars Large Oleine Soap for 25c. City Mills Shipstuff and Brownstuff, 70c. cwt. Genuine Smithfield Hams, 12c. pound.

Brandy Cherries, 15c, bottle. Fresh Soda Crackers and Ginger Snaps, 4c. pound. Mixed Spices for pickling, 20c. pound.

Good California Raisins, 4c. pound. Large new Potatoes, 13c. peck. Pure Old Virginia Cider Vinegar, 5 years old, 20c. gal-turned home strengthened and invigo-rated by his trip abroad. He has already addressed the voters of the county once.

Small California Hams 7c pound Small California Hams, 7c. pound.

4 pounds Excellent Cream Cheese for 25c. James River Shad, 8c.

Good Rice, 3c. pound. Fresh Lemon Crackers, 6c, pound. Golden Drip Syrup, finest and purest syrup you ever Mustard Sardines, 4c, box.

Best Virginia White Corn, 39c. per bushel. The Best Baking Powder sold is La Favonta, in Lemons, per dozen, 24c.

R.H. BOSHER'S SONS

Carriage Manufacturers. Examine Large Stock of Vehicles of · every Description. BUGGIES at $45 and up.

CARTS at $11 and up. Latest designs in TRAPS, SURREYS, and BREW-STER BUGGIES. Repairing and repainting done in first-class style. 15 SOUTH NINTH STREET.

WANTED,

The public to know that we carry a complete line of HARDWARE, PAINTS, LEAD, VAB-NISH, CARRIAGE and WAGON MATERIAL, BAR-IRON, STEEL and IRON RODFING, and that we are headquarters for LOW PRICES. Call and examine our stock or white BALDWIN & BROWN, 1557 E. Main Street.

(mh 22-Su&Tu&w6m) I. Z. MORRIS, VICE-PRESIDES? R. A. PATTERSON, PRESIDENT.

JAMES M. BALL, CASSIER, SAVINGS BANK OF

corner Eleventh and Main streets, IN NATIONAL BANK OF VIRGINIA BUILDING

.$100,000 00 SURPLUS AND UNDIVIDED PROFITS.....

Sums of 31 and upwards received and interest allowed, NEGOTIABLE PAPER DISCOUNTED. LOANS MADE ON REAL ESPAPE Open daily from & A. M. to 3 P. M. Seturdaye till 12 M.